

Ready to take a step into strategic finance?

More than just number crunching – be part of a hands- on workshop

Vodafone Campus Düsseldorf

July 5th 2018 14 – 18.00 pm

- ✓ Do you want to get to know one of the global players in the telecommunications sector?
- ✓ You are talented in analytics and interested in finance? For you, finance is more than number crunching?
- ✓ You are interested in international entrepreneurial relationships from a financially strategic perspective?

Then this is the right place for you!

We invite you to our Vodafone Campus in Düsseldorf: in a relaxed working atmosphere we offer you a unique platform to demonstrate your skills and find out about our career opportunities. We will introduce our Strategic and Commercial Finance as well as our Management Information & Reporting department to you. You will have the opportunity to experience our daily business by working on case studies and personally get to know us.

After the workshop, we will have snacks and drinks and you will have the opportunity to network with Vodafone managers and talk about career opportunities.
